

August 2009

Formpro appoint Nathan Fryer-Jones

FMM have appointed ex TLG and Brightsource man Nathan Fryer Jones as Business Development Manager.

“Nathan comes to us with a wealth of experience in our business and we expect great things” said MD Paul Anderson.
Since joining Fryer-Jones has already attracted some exciting projects and whilst acknowledging times are tough views the future with optimism.

“FMM’s combination of solutions gives the business the flexibility to tackle any aspect of the direct communications market from high volume mailings to daily fulfilment programmes” commented Fryer-Jones,
“It is that versatility that our customers appreciate...and something that excites the people I am talking to.”